

Koch Container

Koch Container engaged us to help reduce their electricity consumption and costs. Our Performance Contracting team replaced their 458 Watt metal halide fixtures with 204 Watt fluorescent fixtures. As you can see from the before (above) and after (below) photos, the facility is now substantially brighter even though it uses less than half as much electricity.

